

As a pharmaceutical company, our channels are regulated...

This means it can limit our activity and we might not be able to reply to all communications...

We intend to keep our channels a safe and respectful place, so please interact in the same manner.

Here are some guidelines on what to stay away from:

- Offering medical advice or naming any medicine, vaccine, or health supplements
- Being discriminatory, demeaning, or defamatory
- Discussing politics or religion
- Promoting illegal activity, war, or arms
- Promoting alcohol, smoking/tobacco-based products, vaping, or other potentially harmful substances
- Infringing on copyrights or trademarks of Almirall or other companies
- Promoting products and services of other companies or persons
- Irrelevant topics on the subject which could be considered spam